Ready For Changes.

"Speaking of the weather," said Columbus drammer at one of the city hotels yesterday, "I have never see the beat of the kind we've been hav ing this winter. Why, you'd be surprised if I'd tell you that I carry an extra trunk this winter for my own wearing apparel. And it's the proper thing, too, for I can dress comfortably for all kinds of weather. Light and heavy overcoats and sults, a muckintosh, and two weights of underclothing and shoes with the other necessities make up my outfit. I have been thinking some of adding a straw hat, but It seems a little out of season. Yes, it's some bother to me, but you ime. mothers, worn with the burden of motherhood and drained of vitality, that Dr.
Pierce's Favorite Prescription comes as the greatest of blessings. The timely use of this remedy prevents the strain and stops the drain from child bearing. Where this strain and drain have been experienced, mothers find that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription acting directly upon the delicate organs which bear the burden of motherhood, restores them to a normal condition of health and elasticity. Ulcerations are curred. Inflammations are removed. The appetite becomes good, sleep is refreshing, the nerves grow quiet. There is a new
